A year after the launch of Miss Luxembourg, the committee is now looking for contestants to take part in the first Mister Luxembourg election.

The Miss Luxembourg committee is launching the male version of the contest for the first time ever in Luxembourg.

Many countries in Europe have a male version of the well-known Miss competition, so now it's Luxembourg's turn to choose an ambassador to represent the country in international events such as Mister World. These contests are very popular world-wide so the Luxembourg Miss and Mister Committee decided to start a national recruitment campaign from the 29th of September to appeal for contestants. The final election will take place in a ceremony in the Château d'Urspelt on the 19th of December.

Suitors to the title do have to fill certain conditions, all of the men should be between 18 and 30 years old and of Luxembourgish nationality. They should be at least 1.75 metres tall and have no children. If these criteria are respected, all the potential candidates should log on to www.misterluxembourg.lu, fill in the form and attach 2 pictures. The pre-election will be held at the end of the month of October and the finalists will be chosen by a jury of fashion and show business professionals. The finalists will then go on holidays together among many other prizes.
